

2016 Hyde Park Used Book Sale book collection commences

Hello everyone,

It's August, and the Used Book Sale Committee of the Hyde Park-Kenwood Community Conference, and our dedicated volunteers, are beginning to accept and sort books for the annual Hyde Park Used Book Sale, coming up on Columbus Day weekend (Oct. 8-10). We will accept donations until Sunday, October 2.

If you have books you'd like to donate, you can take them to Treasure Island any time the store is open and place them in the watermelon box on the lower level. Email me or call me at 773-419-1384 if you have questions, or if you have a lot of books and need a pickup, or if you would like some help getting them into the store. I can also provide a tax receipt for your donation on request. We are also interested in taking clean used Treasure Island bags that you don't need. Our shoppers will use them at the sale. Please note that we do not accept magazines or journals, except National Geographic and Poetry Magazine.

The Used Book Sale Committee has enjoyed the enthusiastic support of Treasure Island, particularly the produce staff, who provide us with all our boxes for books, ever since Treasure Island opened in Hyde Park. This will be the 10th year that HPKCC has put on the sale, and the sale has existed in some form in Hyde Park for over 60 years. We hope to see you there this year! Meanwhile, you know you want more books, so cull your shelves and make room for new ones!

Thank you!
